RECAPITULATION.

Know-nothings and republicans voting for Banks	110
Republican know-nothings voting against Banks	8
National know-nothings voting for Fuller	35
Democrats voting for Richardson and Orr	80

Mr. Miller, of Missouri, and Mr. Childs, of New York, absent since the beginning of the session; Mr. Trumbull's seat vacant. A number of times within the last four weeks the number recorded above as having voted for Mr. Banks could have elected him; and if to these are added the republican know-nothings who vote for Mr. Pennington, it would give to the side of the House supporting Mr. Banks a clear majority of the whole number, even with an unusual attendance.

This list has been prepared with great care, and is believed to be accurate. If any gentleman is erroneously classed it will give us pleasure to make the correction. Wash. Union.

THE NORTH CAROLINA ARATOR.—THE UNDERSIGNED proposes to publish a journal, in the City of Raleigh, to be devoted to the great interests of the Farmers and Mechanics of North Carolina, under the above title. It will be issued monthly, in a neat and convenient form for reading and preservation, at one dollar per annum, payable in advance.

A leading object of the ARATOR will be to select from the numerous periodicals of the country whatever may be deemed solid and good, well suited to our section, and calculated to aid our Farmers and Mechanics in the march of improvement. The results of experience among our own citizens will also be carefully sought and brought to light, and the contributions of our most enterprising and skillful practical men given to the public, with a summary of general news and the state of the markets.

The true policy and interests of North Carolina will always be our motto: and if the friends of the cause of improvement shall be disposed to favor the enterprise, we respectfully solicit their names, and their aid in procuring subscribers.

Our friends will please forward all the names they can get by the 1st of February, and keep the Prospectus for further efforts. Payment will be required on receipt of the first number, which, if encouraged, will be issued by the 1st of March.

FOR SALE.—Dr. H. M. RICHARDSON BEING desirous of retiring from his profession nd going into other business, proposes to sell his Location with his Practice at Holly Springs, Wake County, situated 13 miles west of Raleigh, on the Avens' Ferry or Carthage road. This opportunity offers great inducements to a practising Physician who desires a country location. Holly Springs is a pleasant and growing village, with two excellent schools, stores, churches, &c.—in short all the advantages that may be desired in a town. Also Two Vacant Lots, nicely situated for residence or business in the most public part of the village; one Valuable Tract of Land, containing 85 acres, one-half of which is in cultivation, the other well timbered and mostly fine bottom land, which, if cultivated, will yield in all probability as much or more than the best land in the country. This lies within one-fourth of a mile of the village, with a site for a residence within a large white-oak grove, unsurpassed for beauty and location by any place in the country. It has a fine orchard of varied and delicious fruits, with a never-failing spring and well of excellent water. Also, one 20 bbl. turpentine still, with all tools and appurtenances necessary to carry on the turpentine business; 2 wagons; 4 well-broke young mules, hogs, cattle, &c.—The above property will be sold either for cash or on a credit to suit the purchaser.

LEATHER FOR SPRING TRADE WHOLESALE AND RETAIL.—We respectfully inform our friends and the public that we have in store a large and most excellent Stock of Leather and Findings, for the Spring Trade, which we will sell as low as any other establishment South of New York, and for less price than they can be had even there, expenses of travelling, freight, &c., considered.

All of our purchases having been made from the Importers and Manufacturers by the whole case or package, and the advantage of receiving Leather regularly from our own Tannery, places it in our power to sell Goods as above stated. Those who wish to buy cannot lose by giving our stock an examination, and we believe we shall be able to please, both as to price and quality. Below we enumerate some of the leading articles viz:

20 dozen of Crawford's Calf Skins (this maker had the premium awarded to him at the World's Fair held in London in 1851.)
40 dozen French Skins, best quality,
40 " American Calf Skins,
90 " Lining and Binding Skins,
10 " Morocco Skins,
800 Sides Oak Tanned and Hemlock Sole Leather,
50 " Band Leather,

Lasts, Boot-Trees, Shoe and Boot Maker's Tools of every kind, Tanner's and Currier's Tools.

Also, Sewed Brogans of our own manufacture, warranted to give satisfaction, and many other articles too numerous to mention, at No. 21, Old street, opposite B. P. Harrison's Saddlery. F. A. & R. H. FORD.

N. B. We pay the highest price in cash for Green and Dried Hides delivered to us at our Store.

PROSPECTUS OF THE.
North Carolina Christian Advocate.

THE NORTH CAROLINA ANNUAL CONFERENCE of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, having determined to issue a weekly paper bearing the above name, the subscribers are authorized to issue this prospectus.

It is intended to publish a family newspaper, which, while it shall be religious in tone and sentiment, and maintain the doctrines and usages of the Methodist Church, shall be devoted to all the interests of North Carolina, and furnish intelligence for every class of readers.

In size and appearance the new periodical is to be equal to any of our church papers, while it will surpass them as in adaptedness to the wants of our people. The entire insufficiency of the existing "Advocates" to the necessity of our position, forces us to the publication of our own paper; and we confidently expect the hearty co-operation of the members of our church in all parts of the State and Conference, and hope to make the paper so interesting and instructive as to attract patronage from the public generally.

The "Advocate" will be published at $1 50 a year, and the first number will be issued as early as practicable after the next session of our Conference. It is believed that the publication will be commenced on the 1st of January, 1856. It is desirable that as large a subscription as possible be obtained before the Conference, and the ministers and all others interested in the enterprise are respectfully urged to secure and forward the names and address of subscribers, particular attention being paid to correctness in writing the names of persons, post offices and counties. Those who may have no opportunity of subscribing through the agency of our ministers, may write directly to Rev. Wm. E. Pell, Fayetteville, N. C. The payment will be expected upon the issue of the first number.

The location of the publishing office will be determined at the session of the Conference.

PANAMA IN 1855.—AN ACCOUNT OF THE PANAMA Railroad, of the Cities of Panama and Aspinwall, with Sketches of Life and character on the Isthmus. By Robert Tomes. With Illustrations, 16mo muslin.

The writer of this volume accompained an invited party from New York to assist at the opening of the Panama Railroad. He has given a full and interesting account of that great industrial enterprise from its inception to its completion, with a graphic and instructive description of the romantic country, whose eastern and western shores are connected by the iron bands of the railroad. The sketches of a tropical climate, of the curious natural history of the Isthmus, and its peculiar social customs and habits, which are presented by the author in a style of unflagging animation and gayety, make his work one of the most attractive books of travel ever issued from the American press. The illustrations are from drawings made on the spot.

NOW READY,
SYDNEY SMITH'S LIFE AND LETTERS.
A Memoir of Reverend Sydney Smith By his Daughter, Lady Holland. With a Selection from his Letters, edited by Mrs. Austin. 2 vols. 12mo., muslin.

* * The work now issued comprises an inartificial memoir of Sydney Smith, giving a brief and unpretending narrative of his life, but liberally spiced with specimens of his good sayings and a limited selection from his correspondence, consisting almost entirely of letters written in the abandon of friendship to a few of his intimate associates.

THE LIFE OF A GREAT ORATOR.
Second Supply Now at Hand.

THE LIFE OF S. S. PRENTISS. Edited by his Brother, 2 vols. 12mo. $2 50.

"Next to Patrick Henry, S. S. Prentiss was the greatest natnral orator that has appeared in this country. * * * * Dazling wit, keen sarcasm, apt illustrations, and brilliant figures of speech, poured in profusion from his lips—borne on a torrent of feeling which irresistibly carried away whatever audience he addressed. His habits were convivial; he was a prince of good-fellowship, full of fun and anecdote, and no one ever exceeded him in the grace with which he told a story." Buffalo Com.

"S. S. Prentiss is one of the most brilliant names which adorn our annals. * * * The work is a valuable contribution to American literature, and its contents most strongly interest every admirer of true genius and genuine eloquence." Troy Times.

"His public career was a brilliant one. As a lawyer he was second to none of his profession in the Southwest; or, if success be the test of merit, in the land."

[TO BE CONTINUED.]

Hope writes the poetry of a boy, but memory that of a man. Man looks forward with smiles, but backward with sighs. Such is the wise Providence of God. The cup of life is sweetest at the brim, the flavor is impaired as we drink deeper, and the dregs are made bitter, that we may not struggle when it is taken from our lips.

VOICE OF THE DEMOCRACY.

At a meeting of the Democracy of the county of Gates, held at the Court-House on Monday, 18th of February 1856, (being Court day) Whitmel Stallings Esq., was called to the chair, and R. Gatling, Jr. and N. B. Felton were appointed Secretaries.—The object of the meeting being to appoint delegates to the State Convention to be held in the city of Raleigh, on the 16th of April next, and also to the District Convention to be held for this District.—Whereupon, the following preamble and resolutions were unanimously adopted:

WHEREAS, The Democracy of the State has been called on by its appointed agents to meet in Convention at Raleigh on the 16th of April next, to select its candidate for the office of Governor, therefore,

Resolved, That the Chairman of this meeting appoint thirty delegates to represent this county in said Convention.

Resolved, That the Hon. Thomas Bragg, who has already illustrated the soundness of Democratic principles in the success of his administration, as well as by the clearness and force of his arguments on the hustings, is entitled by his services to the warmest gratitude of his fellow-citizens, and the delegates from this county are hereby instructed earnestly to insist upon his nomination as a candidate for the office whose duties he has so ably fulfilled.

Resolved, That the Democracy of this county would here give renewed expression of their zeal for the cause of Free-Suffrage, and their unceasing determination to halt not nor falter a step till the ballot-box shall become stripped of its free-hold clogs, and every free white man, discharging the duties of a citizen, be free to exercise a citizen's rights and a citizen's privileges—nor would we fail to express our preference to the amending the Constitution by legislative enactment rather than by convention, as being the better method of effecting the will of the people and of bringing understandingly before them, the particular defects to be amended.

Resolved, That since the establishment of the federal Union, no Chief Executive has administered the government with more unflinching firmness and stricter adherence to constitutional principles than Franklin Pierce; whereby he has won the hearts of a grateful people and especially endeared himself to the South, whose constitutional rights he has maintained, despite of the rage of Northern fanatics.

Resolved, That the theory of our government, as discussed in the President's message, contains the true doctrines of the Democratic party, denying to the general government the power to intermeddle with the domestic institutions of the States, and leaving to the people of the Territories respectively, the exclusive power of regulating their internal policy, taking care that it be upon a republican basis. Such a document, emanating from a northern man, fully establishes the nationality of the party which elevated him to power.

Resolved, That though the protracted struggle in the lower house of our national legislature has resulted in the election to the speakership of one of the bitterest enemies to the insitutions of the South, yet, we earnestly hope that "of the evil good will be made to come," and we confidently regard it as a harbinger of a better day which shall witness a people, "once blind but now seeing," no longer wasting their strength in factious opposition, and 'knowing nothing" of ancient party animosities, as a band of brothers firmly untiting in the maintainance and defence of their constitutional rights.

WHEREAS, In accordance with an established usage, the Democratice party will holds its Convention for the selection of candidates for the Presidency and Vice-Presidency of the United States, which by previous notice, will be assembled in the city of Cincinnati on the 2d day of June next: Therefore.

Resolved, That in the judgment of this meeting, the town of Gatesville, and Monday of May County Court for this county, is the most appropriate place and time for the meeting of the Convention of this district to appoint delegates to the said National Convention.

Resolved, That the Chairman of this meeting appoint thirty delegates to said Convention.

After the above resolutions, (proposed by Wm. H. Manning, Esq.,) were a lopted, the following delegates were appointed for the Raleigh Convention:

John Willey, Robt. H. Ballard E. R. Harrell, Stephen D. Ballard, Willis F. Riddick, Lassiter Riddick, David Parker, Dr. Henry C. Willey, Hardy W. Parker, Jas. A. Delk, A. L. Jordon, E. D. B. Howell, S. R. Morgan, Jas. Woodward, W. H. Manning, John B. Langston, T. Smith, James K. Costen, Seth R. Norfleet, Dr. Joseph Parker, Lemuel Riddick, Jr., R. Gatling, Sr., Wm. H. Harrel, Issac Walters, John C. Trotman, Thos. P. Cherry, Louis R. Cooper and Sol. Rountree.

On motion of Willis F. Riddick, the Chairman and Secretaries were added to the list.

The following are the delegates appointed to the Gatesville Convention:

Whitmel Stallings, Wm. H. Harrell, Jas. A. Delk, John B. Langston, Jas. K. Costen, Wm. H. Manning, Marmaduke Baker, Blake Baker, Andrew Voight, John R. Livesy, Fred. R. Jones, E. D. B Howell, Thos. P. Cherry, Geo. T. Harrel, John W. Hunter, John J. Hunter, R. Gatling, Sr., J. B. Story, John Willey, Wm. H. Cross, Esq., Wm. M. Daughtrey, Thos. S. Riddick, Thos. P. Cross, Esq., David Parker, Wm. W. Cooper, Roscoe Riddick, Henry Hofler, Wills Cooper, Wm. E. Mathews, Dr. J. F. Manning, Jethro Blanchard, and Dr. Jos. Parker.

On motion of Willis F. Riddick, it was unanimously requested that these proceedings be published in the Democratic Pioneer, and that the Standard copy.

The meeting then adjourned.

Democratic Meeting in Rockingham.

At a meeting of the Democracy of Rockingham, held in the Court House at Wentworth on Tuesday the 26th February, Gen. F. L. Simpson was called to the Chair, and, on motion of Thos. Settle, Jr., J. I. Scales appointed Secretary. At the request of the Chairman, Jno. H. Boyd, Esq., explained the object of the meeting, viz: to appoint delegates to attend the State Convention at Raleigh on the 16th April, and also delegates to attend a District Convention for the election of Delegates to the National Convention and of Elector for the 6th Congressional District.

Col. Geo. D. Boyd, after a few highly interesting and appropriate remarks, showing the necessity of thorough organization and urging upon every Democrat the duty of diligent preparation for the coming conflict, offered the following resolutions, which were unanimously adopted:*

1st. Reaffirming our entire and unshaken confidence in the Democratic—the only national and conservative party.

2d. Giving to Know Nothings all the laurels they have won in their fusion with Black Republicans and Northern fanatics.

3d. That the administration of Franklin Pierce challenges the admiration and merits the gratitude of all parties and all sections—knowing no North, no South, no East, no West, he has proven himself the friend of all, by maintaining the constitution, the common bond of Union—that we recognize in him the able statesman and fearless patriot.

4th. That the gratitude of the entire South is due to the Hon. Lewis Cass, Hon. Stephen A. Douglas, Hon. Wm. A. Richardson, and others of our Northern brethren, who have boldly opposed the tide of anti-slavery fanaticism and shown themselves the able defenders of the equal rights of equal States.

5th. That Thos as Bragg, by the efficient and impartial manner in which he has discharged his official duties, as well as by the urbanity of his deportment and the high-toned moral principles characterizing his life, has peculiarly endeared himself to the people of North Carolina and especially recommended himself to them for re-election.

6th. That this Convention appoint — delegates to attend the Raleigh Convention, and — delegates for the District Convention.

On motion of A. M. Scales, Esq., the Chairman was instructed to fill up the first blank of the above resolution with the names of twenty delegates, and that of the second with ten.

In pursuance of this motion the following gentlemen were appointed: For Raleigh—Capt. Grogan, Jr., Spencer Kallum, Mr. Martin, of Norman's precinct, Nathaniel Scales, Jr., Thos. Ruffin. Jr., Thos. Settle, Jr., A. M. Scales, Jr., Sam. Boyd, Maj. Wm. D. Bethell, Rawley Galloway, Col. Boyd, Wm. P. Watt, Dr. Jno. L. Scales, Capt. Robt. Warriner, Dr. G. P. Bailey, Col. G. L. Bailey, Hugh K. Reid, Jesse Slade, Robt. Montgomery, Joseph W. Neal and Alfred Reid.

For the District Convention—Dr. T. W. Keen, Jos. H. Cardwell, Pat. Gallaher, R. H. Smith, Dr. Jesse Carter, John H. Boyd, J. I. Scales, James Raines, R H. Gladson, and Carter Holderby.

On motion of Thos. Ruffin, Jr. Esq., the Chairman was requested to act with both committees.

The same gentleman moved, provided a majority of Counties concur, that Winston be the place and Tuesday (8th) of April Superior Court the time for holding said District Convention.

On motion of Joseph W. Neal, the proceedings of this meeting were ordered to be forwarded to the Raleigh Standard and Rockingham Democrat for publication.

FRANK L. SIMPSON, Ch'm'n.

J. IRVING SCALES, Sec'y.

* It is due to Col. Boyd to state that the above is only a meager outline of his patriotic and telling resolutions.—The Secretary regrets that in consequence of having lost them, together with the notes of the whole proceedings, he is obliged to rely entirely upon memory, and is unable to do justice to Col. Boyd or his resolutions.

Democratic Meeting in Perquimans County.

The election of Banks as Speaker of the House of Representatives, and the startling fact that Southern K. N. representatives voted for Fuller—the deadly enemy of the South—that Fuller voted for Pennington, the abolitionist—and Pennington for Banks, his co-laborer in the work of disunion, suddenly called together the Democracy of old Perquimans on Monday last at the Court House to take into consideration the present alarming condition of the country, and to express their entire satisfaction in the course pursued in the late contest in the House by our Democratic brethren, as well as our abiding confidence in the administration of President Pierce, &c., &c.

Whereupon, on motion, Josiah T. Granbery was called to the chair and Thos. Wilson appointed Secretary.

Mr. Granbery, in a few but happy remarks, fully explained the object of the meeting, and on motion of J. Parker Jordan, Esq., a committee of five to-wit, Messrs. Jordan, Jas. C. Skinner, Josiah Perry, E. W. Riddick and Thos. B. Long, was appointed to draft resolutions expressive of the sense of this meeting.

The committee instructed Mr. Jordan to report to the meeting for adoption, the following preamble and resolutions, which on motion were unanimously adopted with loud and prolonged applause:

WHEREAS, The election of Nathaniel P. Banks as Speaker of the House of Representatives by the combined votes of Northern Know Nothings and Abolitionists, have imperilled the constitutional rights of the South, by giving the already dangerous proclivities of the North a preponderating influence in the House—and whereas, the joint action of two such parties—strengthened by party discipline—impelled and animated by the sole desire of crushing our domestic institutions, has given to us fresh cause of alarm, therefore,

Resolved, That it is the sense of this meeting, that Congress has no constitutional right to interfere with the subject of slavery either in the States or Territories, and that any interference on its part will be looked upon as a violation of the original compact and perhaps sunder forever the fraternal ties which have so closely knit us together.

Resolved, That the doctrine of popular sovereignty or the right of the people to govern themselves in their own way, uncontrolled by any power save that of the constitution and laws made in obedience thereto, is a fundamental principle underlying the deep foundations of our political existence, and cannot be impugned without shaking the very pillars of the constitution.

Resolved, That as Congress has no constitutional power to legislate slavery in a Territory, nor the ability to destroy property which the constitution protects—it results that the sovereign people of Kansas and Nebraska have an inalienable right to settle their own domestic institutions in their own way, to admit or exclude slavery as their interest may suggest. Holding these principles sacred and inviolable, and with an eye solely to the perpetuity of a confederacy cemented by the blood and treasure of a nation.

We further resolve, That Franklin Pierce is our first choice for the Presidency in 1856, and that he deserves at our hands this expression of our gratitude for the bold and manly rebuke in condemning, as treason to the constitution, the attempt of the fanatics and their allies of the north to foster the seeds of discontent, and sow dissensions among a people, hitherto loyal to the constitution, and united to us by the common ties of kindred and interest.

Resolved, That the present able and efficient Secretary of the Navy, James C. Dobbin, one of North Carolina's distinguished sons, is our first choice for the Vice Presidency.

Resolved, That whatever ills may betide us as a nation—whether we swim or sink—survive or perish, we shall ever cherish for our Democratic brethren North, who have so manfully stood by the constitution and their country in that hour, when our civil and religious liberties were imperilled, and the hope of the patriot shone but dimly upon the disc of our political horizon—who so nobly sacrificed themselves at home for the cause of truth and constitutional obligation—we shall ever cherish for them—men who have been tried in the furnace—a high sense of moral obligation, and teach our children to reverence a devotion to country, worthy of the best days of the Republic.

Resolved, That we have witnessed with pride and admiration the gallant, though unequal fight, of that noble band of patriots, who struggled for constitutional liberty in the House, against the force of a higher-law party, and uniting ability of a high and commanding character, with hearts that beat only for their country's good—stood shoulder to shoulder in the unequal conflict bearing like the noble Romans their breasts to the enemies of constitutional freedom, until overpowed by force and by fraud, they submitted to their fate.

Resolved, That we hail with pride and becoming satisfaction, with a lofty patriotic glow, that part of the President's message which re-asserts and incorporates into our political platform the doctrine of 1818, enunciated by Monroe—that no foreign government should seek to colonize and foster into a nation upon North American soil, institutions inimical and at war with the sacred principles of liberty, and that any attempt upon the part of Great Britain to ineffectuate this object by force or by fraud, in the construction of plain treaties, and in contravention of these express stipulations, should be met with strong, uncompromising resistance.

Resolved, That as maintenance of these principles inviolable is a sure guarantee of the perpetuity of our national government, we cannot adjourn this meeting without calling upon our friends South, without distinction of party, to stand by the men who have stood by us, and stay the storm of fanaticism that would sunder political ties, the conservation of which has produced happiness and prosperity—the sure result of temperate and equitable laws—wisely and prudently administered.

Prefatory to the introduction of these resolutions, Mr. Jordan addressed the meeting in an eloquent and soul-stirring speech of more than an hour, denunciatory of the late meritricious alliance in the House, and vindicatory of Democratic measures.

During the retirement of this committee, L. J. Johnson, Esq., was loudly called for, and responded thereto in an able and argumentative speech, which was received with repeated marks of approbation.

On motion of Jas. C. Skinner, Esq, it was resolved that a delegation of fifteen persons be appointed to attend the District Convention to be held at —— on —— day of —— next, (being Court week) and also a delegation of ten persons to attend the Convention to be held at Raleigh on the 16th April next. Whereupon, the Chair appointed to the District Convention the following persons:

Elisha Riddick, Josiah Perry, Jas. C. Skinner, Jas. Gordon, J. P. Jordan, H. H. Skinner, Thomas Long, Jas. Ball, E. W. Riddick, Perry Goodwin, W. C. Simpson, Wilson M. Fleetwood, Geo. W. Fleetwood, Willis W. Riddick, Moses Jackson, James A. Woodward, M. O. Jordan, Jos Gregory, W. Blanchard, Jos. Mardre, Henry Small, John Parsons.

And the following named persons to attend the State Convention:

Jas. C. Skinner, J. P. Jordan, Elsbury W. Riddick, H. H. Skinner, George Simpson, Thos. Simpson, Joseph White, Wm. Coppage, Joshua W. White, Joseph Fleetwood.

And on motion it was further resolved, that we concur with our brethren of Chowan in the propriety of holding the District Convention at Edenton at the time designated.

As is customary, the best wine was reserved for the last—for just at the close of our meeting, it was observed that our friend William Moore, Esq., son of the late Judge Moore, was present; who responded to a vociferous call, in one of the happiest efforts it was our good fortune ever to have listened to—and the meeting adjourned with loud and repeated cheers for Pierce and the Democracy.

The Chairman and Secretary were, on motion, added to both delegations; and it was resolved that these proceedings be published in the Pioneer, Standard and Roanoke Republican.

Whereupon the meeting adjourned.

Democratic Meeting in Alamance.

At a meeting of the Democratic party, held at Sandy Cross, on Saturday the 1st day of March, 1856, Gen. Benj. Trolinger was called to the Chair, and W. W. Horn and Calvin Roney appointed Secretaries. After the object of the meeting was explained by the Chair, a committee of three, consisting of Joseph Wyatt, Maj. Philip Crawford, and Dr. D. A. Montgomery, was appointed to draft resolutions for its consideration.

Benj. F. Roney being called on, addressed the meeting until the committee returned and offered the following:

WHEREAS, The people of Sandy Cross District in public meeting assembled, under a right guaranteed by the constitution of this State as well as of the United States, to speak of men and measures; and whereas, certain and important elections are now pending in which we at the proper time and place expect and intend openly, fairly and independently to take a deep interest; therefore

Resolved, That we have undiminished confidence in the principles of the Democratic party, and the doctrines laid down in the Baltimore platform in 1852.

Resolved, That we approve of the present administration of Gen. Franklin Pierce.

Resolved, That we regard his late message as one of the ablest documents ever offered to the American people.

Resolved, That we would rejoice to see him again elected to his present high position by the people of this Union.

Resolved, That we approve of the careful and practical administration of his Excellency, Thomas Bragg, and as he is a well tried patriot and has proven himself always ready and willing to battle for the great cause of Democracy, we hereby earnestly recommend him to the people of North Carolina for re-election.

Resolved, That we are opposed to any party whose principles can only bind them together by midnight associations and cemented by secret political oaths and obligations.

Resolved, That we approve of the proposition to hold a County Convention in the town of Graham on the third Thursday of this month, to select candidates to represent Alamance county in the next General Assembly, and appoint delegates to attend our State Convention.

Resolved, That the Chairman appoint twenty delegates to represent Sandy Cross District in said Convention.

Resolved, That we pledge our support to the nominees, and forever to discard from our party any bickering or ill feeling on account of disappointment of any aspirant.

In pursuance of the 8th resolution the Chair appointed the following delegates: Anderson Thompson, John Roney, Haywood Teer, W. W. Horn, Dr. Thomas E. Griffis, Nat. Deshongh, Samuel Allen, Elisha Willis, Major Crawford, Joseph McAdams, Capt. Jos. Baker, Jos. Wyatt, Dr. Bedford Walker, Beufort Benson, Wm. King, John B. Murray, J. C. Deshough, Col. James Allen, Frederick Wyatt.

On motion, Gen. B. Trolinger was added to the list of delegates.

On motion, it was ordered that these proceedings be published in the N. C. Standard.

After a vote of thanks to the Chairman and Secretaries, on motion the meeting adjourned.

THE CONVULSIVE THROES OF KNOW-NOTHINGISM. We continue to publish some of the incidents of the Know-Nothing proceedings at Philadelphia, which must disgust all good and true patriots. The "nationality" of the organization has been throughly exploded, and many Southern delegates have withdrawn from the body, sickened out at the arrogance of the Northern Know-Nothings, who forced such a free-soiler as Wm. F. Johnston and his colleagues upon them. How could they do other wise, after being fully acquainted with the free-soil elements that composed the Convention, so strongly proved by the following despatch from Philadelphia, read in the Pittsburg Black Republican Convention, on Saturday afternoon:

"The American party are no longer united. Raise the Republican banner. Let there be no further extension of slavery. THE AMERICANS ARE WITH YOU."

Letters from Pittsburg say that the temple was nigh being rent with the shouts that this telegraphic message occasioned.

This simple fact should open the eyes of the whole South and brand Know-Nothingism as a thing to be eschewed and execrated.

THE MONUMENT QUESTION.—The Wilmington Herald is

The Standard.

RALEIGH, WEDNESDAY, MARCH 12, 1856

Notice to our Subscribers.

The Standard will not be sent to any one hereafter unless the order for the same be accompanied with the cash; and on the 1st day of May, 1856, the cash rule will be established with reference to all subscribers; and all who may be in arrears at that time will be erased from the list. Subscribers will be duly informed of the amounts of their indebtedness respectively; and we shall adopt some plan by which they will be thereafter regularly notified of the dates at which their subscriptions will expire.

MEN, NOT PRINCIPLES.

"Principles, not men," used to be a favorite maxim with many of the old Whigs; but the maxim seems to have been reversed;—it is now, Men, not Principles. Some of the Whig Know Nothing papers declare and insist that a platform of principles was adopted at Philadelphia; while others, the Raleigh Register among them, as stoutly affirm that no platform was adopted, and that, by consequence, the K. N's now have no principles. How is it?—The latter point to their nominees—and who are they? Mr. Fillmore, once an anti-Mason, and elected to the Legislature of New York as such—once a Henry Clay Whig, but now a Know Nothing, regularly sworn and subscribed. Andrew Jackson Donelson, who, in a letter of date March 5, 1856, addressed to his friends in Baltimore, declares himself "an old Jackson Democrat." These are the men. Mr. Fillmore is in favor of a high tariff, a national Bank, and the distribution of the proceeds of the public lands; Major Donelson, if indeed "an old Jackson Democrat," is opposed to all such measures.

But some of the K. N's say there is a platform.—Let us see, then, what is thought of it by Northern men. Mr. Sheets, of Indiana, said in the Convention, that—

"He would assure the South that the 12th section must be got rid of. He was willing to accept a compromise, but the section must be got rid of; HE WAS WILLING TO ACCEPT THE WASHINGTON PLATFORM, FOR IF THERE WAS ANYTHING IN IT, IT WAS SO COVERED UP WITH VERBIAGE THAT A PRESIDENT WOULD BE ELECTED BEFORE THE PEOPLE WOULD FIND OUT WHAT IT WAS ALL ABOUT." [Tumultuous laughter.]

And so the twelfth section was stricken out, and the new platform is a mass of "verbiage." No wonder the Register is anxious to impress its readers with the belief that there is no platform.

But the experience of the Know Nothing party, under its old name of Whig, shows that it is very hazardous to rely solely on men. In 1840 they elected Gen. Harrison and John Tyler, "without a why or a wherefore." Gen. Harrison died, and John Tyler—so they say—turned traitor. In 1848 they elected Gen. Taylor and Mr. Fillmore. Gen. Taylor died, and Mr. Fillmore, after having, as they say, acquitted himself well, was by them repudiated and set aside. Now, they propose to elect Mr. Fillmore and Maj. Donelson. Well, suppose they should do it; and suppose Mr. Fillmore should die—what then? Major Donelson would be President. He says he is "an old Jackson Democrat." Leaving out of view his palpable and utter want of qualifications for the place, are the old Whigs, let us ask, going to place in the Presidential chair "an old Jackson Democrat?" But Mr. Fillmore, we are answered, will not die—his friends say they are willing to risk it. We entertain no fears of his election; but if he should be elected, we trust he will not die, but will live to serve out his term; yet who can tell? He may die—both the Whig Presidents died; God spoke!—he took the old patriots from the evil to come; and the people were amazed, stunned, sorrowful, and dumb. It may happen again. It will not do to depend solely on men. Those who would really serve the country, and who would save it from impending danger, must act upon principles—must stand upon the Constitution, and rely upon reason, upon truth, upon great doctrines, and not upon mere men, who pass away like a breath. If Mr. Fillmore—say the K. N's by their acts—should be elected, and should live, it will be well; but if he should die, we will be ruined!

NORTH CAROLINA RAILROAD.—The regular meeting of the Directors of this Road was held at Goldsborough on Friday last.

We learn that the Directors had under consideration the propriety of changing the present arrangement to a daily line, and will do so, so far as may be consistent with the Postoffice contract.

An arrangement is to be made with the Wilmington and Weldon Road, so that produce sent to Wilmington and Weldon is to have the freight paid at those points; and so for goods forwarded, the freight is to be paid at the places of delivery. This reciprocity, it is believed, will operate favorably for both the farmer and merchant.

The President of the Road was authorized to make arrangements for an Express along the whole line—either Adams & Co., or otherwise, as may be judged best.

We also understand that a new station is to be established at Strayhorn's, to be called "The University Station"—which is nine miles from Chapel Hill; and that a road has been laid out from that point.

Among the business brought before the Board was an offer from the President of the Wilmington and Weldon Railroad, to make a through ticket from Charlotte, and intermediate points on the N. C. Railroad, to Weldon, Wilmington, and all places intermediate, and also to allow persons coming from the N. C. Railroad to participate in the through ticket to New York, Philadelphia, &c. The Wilmington Journal says: "We are very much surprised to learn that the proposition was declined, unless the Raleigh and Gaston Railroad could be admitted to participate in the through ticket."

BY WHAT AUTHORITY?—The Register announces that a K. N. State Convention will assemble in Greensborough, on the 10th of April next. Who were the delegates to the Council held here in October last, by which this Convention was called?—Who presided, and who were the Secretaries? And how did it happen, though all secrecy was abolished, that the proceedings of the said October Council were not published? Were the Secretaries—who were they?—remiss in their duty? And how did it happen that Mr. Haughton was notified of his appointment as a State delegate to Philadelphia, and furnished with his credentials, while Col. Hoke, who was also appointed, was not even notified?

FIRE COMPANIES.—We are pleased to observe the City government taking steps to protect property against fire. Two Fire Companies and a Hook and Ladder Company have been organized. We trust the members of each will persevere until thorough discipline is attained, and that every preparation will be made to arrest the devouring element, should it unfortunately break out.

☞ We are requested to state that the next regular meeting of the Granville County Agricultural Society, will be held in Henderson on Saturday the 15th inst.

GRAND K. N. RAT-EYE-FICATION MEETING IN RALEIGH.—In accordance with previous notice, given in the Register and by handbills posted about the street corners, the K. N's held a grand ratification meeting at the Court House in this City on last Friday night. The novelty of a K. N. meeting with open doors and lights in the room, excited the curiosity of some twenty or thirty Democrats and caused them to proceed to the scene of action. Of this number we, the Associate, were one. While on our way to the designated place the Court House bell, (generally rung when a fire breaks out,) was put in violent motion. The quiet citizens rushed into the streets eagerly enquiring, "Where's the fire?" We replied "at the Court House," and made our way thither. On counting noses we found just eleven, about half of which had an old familiar Democratic appearance.

After several "spells" of bell ringing, some forty or fifty persons, men and boys, collected. About 8 o'clock the meeting was organized by calling Capt. W. H. Harrison to the Chair, and appointing Messrs. O. L. Burch and W. H. Smith Secretaries. We noticed that all the K. N's took back seats—not one of them going within the bar. Why they avoided this spot we cannot tell, unless it be that it inspired a terror by being called the place of justice.

Capt. Harrison, on taking the Chair, thanked the meeting for the honor conferred upon him. He then alluded to his having been a delegate from North Carolina to the late National Council and Convention at Philadelphia, where, he said, the black Republicans were forced to withdraw, leaving a conservative and national body. By the bye, it struck us that the Captain forgot to tell the meeting that the black Republicans forced him to withdraw first, and that he was not in the Convention when the nominations were made.

A committee of three, consisting of Messrs. Gales, Husted and P. Williams were appointed to draft resolutions for the consideration of the meeting. In about three minutes they returned, and Mr. Gales read the resolutions, all of which were unanimously adopted by a vote of four ayes and no noes. Maj. Husted then rose and said he was not prepared to make a speech—that he believed in fun—that he was taken into a back room where the resolutions just reported were shown to him—that he approved of them, &c. He eulogized Mr. Fillmore, and attempted to do the same favor to Donelson; but his voice failed, and with a strangling, choking, and almost inaudible utterance, he brought his remarks to a close with a hoarse cough and resumed his seat.

Hon. John H. Bryan next took the floor, and went it on the high pressure old fogy system for about ten minutes He praised Fillmore quite extravagantly, but he never said Donelson once. By the way, is Mr. Bryan a member of the K. N. party? We think not.

A feeble cry was now raised for Hamilton C. Jones, Esq., but there was no response, and silence prevailed for a minute or two. Hon. S. H. Rogers then took the floor, and squinted considerable dissatisfaction at the Kansas-Nebraska bill. We say squinted, because he did not call it by name, but evidently alluded to it. He berated President Pierce considerably, made a lick at the Democratic party generally, thought Mr. Fillmore platform enough, and begged his friends to rally to him and work for him. We thought the Honorable gentleman must have felt a little sore, remembering that he had voted in Congress against the repeal of the Missouri Compromise, especially when Capt. Harrison had just boasted that a proposition to restore that Compromise had been voted down in the K. N. Convention by a large majority.

Mr. Gales was next called on, but excused himself on the ground of physical indisposition, and called the attention of the Chairman to the business part of the resolutions, which authorized him to appoint twenty delegates to the K. N. State Convention to be held in Greensboro' on the 10th of April next. Thus a little Raleigh clique of two dozen Know Nothings, in a night meeting, take upon themselves the assumption of power to act for the whole county! A beautiful exhibition of the beauties of Americanism!

The meeting finally resolved itself into a Fillmore and Donelson Club, and adjourned.

On the whole the meeting was a cold, flat, insipid affair. There was neither life, energy, or even hope about it. It was a dead drag from beginning to end. The speakers were all "unprepared," and could only say a few good words for Fillmore, and damn Donelson with faint and insincere praise. Mr. Bryan was for judging men by their fruits, and those of Fillmore he thought were good. Wonder what he thought of those of Donelson, especially those sketches of Fillmore written by him when he was Editor of the Union?

We presume the resolutions will be published in the Register, and the Editor of that paper, as in duty bound, will make a grand flourish; but we think we may confidently appeal to every man in the meeting to sustain us in the opinion that there were not four dozen Know Nothings present. A few such meetings would not leave a corporal's guard for the nominees of the Philadelphia Babel, and we prophecy that the leaders will not risk many more open doors and lights in the room.

"Renegades and traitors always achieve notoriety, but fame hardly ever." Judas Iscariot became notorious, but not FAMOUS. Fay. Argus.

Two other instances of the same sort now occur to us—Benedict Arnold and Andrew Jackson Donelson. Read the following extract from an editorial in the Union when that paper was conducted by this man Donelson, and say, if you can, that he has won fame rather than notoriety, by his apostacy. Hear him:

"IMMIGRATION.—The Republic of Wednesday contains a long article on immigration to the United States. It portrays in vivid colors the rapid and unparalleled increase in the number of those who are seeking our shores. The Irish emigration is so great that the court journal classes it among 'the phenomena of history." We (Andrew Jackson Donelson) are glad to see this emigration from the Old World. It brings to us the physical force we need to fell the forest and to build our improvements. We have yet, and will have for many long years, scope and range enough for their industry and enterprise. But it was not our intention to discuss this branch of the subject at the present time. The native party is now prostrate, and it will be time enough to commence the discussion when another attempt is made by the FEDERALISTS TO REVIVE THE PRINCIPLES OF THE ALIEN LAWS."

And now that this attempt is made by the "federalists," we find Donelson acquiring notoriety by a prominent position with them. O tempora! O Moses! &c.

☞ Is it not a matter for surprise, as well as general congratulation, that for the first time since the foundation of the government we have an "American party?" Let us all be gratified; and let such as are very good-humored, laugh. What a stride forward in politics!—how the old patriots and patriarchs of other days have been thrown in the shade! An "American party!"—every thing else is "locofocoish" and "foreign."

THE KNOW NOTHINGS AND ABOLITIONISTS.—The Ohio State Journal puts forth the following feeler for a complete fusion between the know-nothings and abolitionists:

"When the three parties have their candidates in the field, then we expect to witness a sharp and active canvass. The American party in the South will have to meet single-handed the "fierce democracy,' and in the North the republicans and Americans will have to meet the same enemy. If they unite upon one set of electors in each of the States, nearly, if not quite, every northern State can be carried against the democratic party. If, on the other hand, the Americans and republicans run each an electoral ticket of their own, the result may be, and probably will be, an unparalleled democratic triumph."

Judging by the past, we may look for fusion on an extensive scale between the K. N's and black Republicans of the free States. Just before the recent election in Pennsylvania, the K. N's, the black republicans, and some of the old Whigs fused against the Democratic candidate for Canal Commissioner, and gave due notice of the same. Gov. Gardner of Massachusetts is also feeling about for a fusion. In one of his recent speeches, he expressed a wish that the K. N's and black Republicans of the free States would unite.

SMALL POX IN BUNCOMBE.—The Asheville News of the 6th inst. says that several cases of Small Pox have occurred in the family of Mr. Andrew Lankford, seven or eight miles northwest of Asheville, on the Warm Springs road, and that other cases have occurred in the eastern parts of the county. The News adds:

"None of the cases have as yet proved fatal; on the contrary, the disease appears to be in its mildest form, and thus far has readily yielded to medical treatment.

Not a single case has yet appeared in this town, and from the energetic precautionary measures adopted by the town authorities, there is reason to hope that, with a hearty co-operation on the part of every citizen, our village will escape entirely. All communication has been cut off with the infected districts, and no one but a physician allowed to leave or enter the town. Our business houses are all closed.

These precautionary measures, with the blessing of Heaven, it is confidently hoped, will save us from the dire visitation.

The disease was introduced into the country by a family returning from Iowa."

PURSUIT OF KNOWLEDGE.—The Fayetteville Argus, in pursuit of knowledge, asks "Will the Democracy nominate a ticket for the approaching Presidential election?" Presuming that the editor is only asking this question for the purpose of obtaining information, and knowing no one that needs it more than he, we adopt the language of Mr. Filmore in replying to the questions propounded to him enquiring whether he was opposed to slavery, in favor of abolishing it in the District of Columbia, &c., and say: "We answer in the affirmative." In order to gratify Cameron's laudable desire to obtain knowledge we will also give him another bit of information, concerning which he was too modest to enquire—the Democracy will not only nominate a ticket, but they will elect it also. We take great pleasure in assisting young men (like Cameron) in their pursuit of knowledge—especially when, as in his case, it is "under difficulties."

MR. FILLMORE WITH THE POPE OF ROME.—The New York Herald of March 6th has the following allusion to the present whereabouts and whatabouts of the know-nothing candidate for the presidency:

"MAKING A LION OF HIM AT ROME.—In a letter from Rome, dated January 1, we find the following interesting paragraph:

"'Our friends, ex-President Fillmore, Dr. Foote, and Mr. Jewett, were at the Church of the Jesuits, and appeared to enjoy the ceremonies quite as well as others. The ex-President has only been here two or three days. Cass makes a party for him on Thursday evening of this week. I think the Papal government will make something of a lion of him as they did of Mr. Van Buren last winter.'

"Think of that! Mr. Fillmore enjoying the Jesuits at Rome, and the Papal government making a lion of him. Would it not be well for Gen. Gustavus Adolphus Scroggs, who, it is said, initiated Mr. Fillmore into council 177, to interfere at once for his rescue from the Pope and the Jesuits of Rome? If they make a lion of the American nominee, how can the Americans be expected to 'rule America,' we should like to know?"

Can it be possible that Mr. Fillmore—the anti-Catholic and K. N Candidate for the Presidency—is in Rome, dancing attendance on the Pope? It is even so! The "Papal government is to make something of a lion of him!"—he is to be flattered and feasted, and is to kiss the Pope's great toe! Mr. Van Buren returned a Catholic—would it be very surprising, if, under the circumstances, Mr. Fillmore should come back burning with hatred towards his Holiness? Profession is one thing, practice is another. What next? What is this world coming to?

Extract from a letter to the Editors of the Standard, dated

MECKLENBURG CO., March 3d, 1856.

"I have been a reader of the Standard ever since its first issue, and I was never better pleased with it than I am now. Go on in your patriotic work of defending the constitution and the Union, and battling against abolitionism, Know Nothingism, and all the family of isms, and success will perch upon your banner. Democracy is lengthening her cords and strengthening her stakes, and will give thunder to the isms next summer. Give us Pierce for President, and Bragg for Governor, and Mecklenburg will speak out as of old at the polls next August and November."

WORK IN THE GARDEN FOR MARCH.—The past month has been one of such unmitigated cold that no gardening has been done, consequently nearly all the work that should have been done in February, must be done in March.

PEAS.—Early peas should be sowed, as well as those that mature later. The ground should be well ploughed, and thrown up into beds, four feet wide, for early peas. Where guano is used, we open a deep furrow with a common coulter, sprinkle in the guano, and with a light rake draw in a small quantity of earth upon it, and sow the peas tolerably thick, and cover with the rake about an inch deep. We have found from long experience, that the bedding insures a much earlier crop.

RADISHES.—The ground should be highly manured, and the seed put in drills about two feet apart, and the plants thinned out as they grow large enough, to the distance of two or three inches. The seed should be very slightly covered and kept clear of grass and weeds—They generally mature so rapidly as to require very little hoeing.

BEETS, CARROTS, PARSNIPS AND SALSIFY require that the soil should be deeply broken, and in fine tilth. They should be sowed in drills, two feet apart, and at intervals of 8 inches in the drill, with the exception of the salsify, which may be left four inches apart, dropping several seed in a place. They required a highly manured soil and frequent workings. The parsnips and carrots require to be worked until October.

BEANS.—In the latter part of this month a few beans may be planted for early use such as the snap bean and the Lima. We plant the Lima in rows four feet apart, and four feet in the row, and as soon as the vines begin to run, we stick them with substantial poles, 6 feet high, with a portion of the boughs shortened, and left on the poles to catch runners. We prefer to plant the bunch or snap bean in hills, 3 feet apart, leaving three or four plants to each hill. They should be very often worked until they begin to bloom, and at each working have a little earth drawn to them.

CORRESPONDENCE OF THE STANDARD.

WASHINGTON, March 8, 1856.

No reply from England to the American demand—Abuse of the Great Republic—Arbitration not the proper mode for the settlement of the Central American Question—Debates on Kansas in both Houses—Two Reports from the Committee on Elections—The fighting Abolitionist—Fillmore certainly a Know Nothing—Political movements.

It is understood that no reply has yet been made by the English government to Mr. Marcy's despatch of the 28th December, and consequently it is not known whether the demand of our government relative to Mr. Crampton, will be acceded to, or a compliance therewith refused. Most probably an effort to temporize will be made, to prolong the discussion, hoping that the public may lose sight of the matter through delay. So clear a case has been made out by the American Secretary of State, that no further discussion should be allowed; if our demand be not complied with in a reasonable time, the dignity of the Administration and of the government can be vindicated only by the dismissal of the offending Minister and Consuls without the waste of more words. The whole case is before the country, the opinion is nearly unanimous that our demand is no more than England should readily yield to, and the commercial interests are satisfied that they can no longer be promoted by the continued presence of Mr. Crampton and the English Consuls at New York, Philadelphia and Cincinnati.

The organs of the English ministry continue the publication of articles in disparagement of the United States—embracing every opportunity to shower upon the Great Republic their unmeasured abuse. These papers are seized with a species of paroxysm three or four times a year, whenever Jonathan refuses to let John Bull have his own way in every thing involving the interests of this country, and as great a clatter is raised as if the two countries had already commenced actual warfare. These paper bullets are fired off at the precise moment when John Bull wishes to mislead public opinion in order that his real designs may escape observation. The trick is too stale now to produce the desired effect. The British West India Squadron was largely reinforced last autumn, to intercept a filibustering expedition against Ireland as Lord Clarendon said, but really to overawe Jonathan and prevent him from making a fuss about the enlistment difficulty; now that the question has approached a conclusion, the London Times announces an immediate reinforcement of the garrisons in Canada. Everybody understands this, and no importance is attached to it, excepting as showing up the true character of English diplomacy under Lord Clarendon's directions.

The proposal of the English government to submit the Central American question to arbitration, is now formally under the consideration of our government. Waiving all objections as to the manner in which that proposal has been made, its acceptance is not desirable either as likely to lead to an amicable settlement or to an impartial consideration of our interests and a just decision thereon. The same objections urged by Mr. Everett against the Tripartite treaty in connection with Cuba, apply with equal force to Central America. The strongest objection was that the interests of the three governments in the future condition of Cuba were not equal—that Cuba was geographically a dependency of the United States, lying upon its immediate borders, and a change in its political condition could not occur without exciting much concern. Lying remote from Europe, the two governments proposing the treaty did not have the same or an equal interest in the future of that island. Central America commands one of the principle routes between the Atlantic and Pacific shores of our country, and the control of it is demanded by every consideration of interest and prudence. To England the possession of a foothold in Central America is valuable rather to annoy us by throwing a slight obstacle in the way of our onward progress. The question in no way presents that equality of interest that would justify its reference to an umpire, even if an impartial one could be found. The American construction of the Clayton-Bulwer Treaty is the right one, and the only one at all consistent with the protection of American interests, and its admission should be insisted on, or the treaty abrogated entirely.

Congress has at last got fairly organized and business has commenced—that is, the business of the long session—which is principally making one hour speeches. The House went into Committee of the Whole on the state of the Union. Mr. Grow got the floor and led off in an abolition speech on the Kansas question. He was followed in reply by Mr. Cadwallader, one of the representatives from Philadelphia county, who made an able argument in defence of the principles of the Nebraska-Kansas bill. Mr. Cadwallader showed himself to be one of the soundest and most reliable Democrats in Congress. Occupying a conservative and national position, he will be one of the most useful and influential members of the House. The debate was continued yesterday, when Mr. Oliver, of Missouri, exposed at considerable length the operations of the abolitionists in Kansas—that citizens of the eastern States had been employed to go there and vote, who returned immediately afterwards, and that Gov. Reeder had aided the Emigrant Aid Society by all means in his power. The speech was a complete defence of the Southern party in Kansas and of the action of the Missourians to defeat the schemes of the abolitionists.

The expected report from the Committee on Elections, assigning the reasons for asking the House to authorize it to send to Kansas for persons and papers, was presented on Wednesday, but instead of one there were two reports—the minority, consisting of Mr. Stephens, Mr. Oliver of Missouri, and Mr. Wm. R. Smith, of Alabama, presenting their views in the form of a report. Mr. Hickman, of Pennsylvania, presented the majority report, which was drawn up, it is said, by Gov. Reeder; it goes much into a detail of the troubles in Kansas, arguing that the law under which Whitfield was elected was not a valid one, and that consequently he was not legally elected; but it is remarkable that no effort is made to substantiate Reeder's claims. Probably the Republicans of the House already perceive that he has no claim, and that to refer the matter to the people and order a new election, is quite as far as common decency will permit them to go. The minority report was prepared by Mr. Stephens, and is an able one. It should be in the hands of all who wish to have a fuller understanding of the merits of the Kansas question. The consideration of these reports is a privileged question, and will probably be resumed next week. If the House is full, it is barely possible that it may adopt the views of the minority rather than assent to the scheme of the majority, to bring to Washington a hundred or two of the freestate party of Kansas at the public expense.

The Kansas question has also been discussed in the Senate—Judge Butler, Mr. Toucey, and others having presented their views in that connection.—Mr. Wilson again indulged in personal denunciations, repeating ad nauseam the declaration that he held himself personally responsible "here or elsewhere" for his assertions. About a year since a communication appeared in the New York Tribune, attributing the influence of the South in directing the legislation of Congress, to the fact that Southern men were always ready to fight for their principles, that Northern representatives allowed themselves to be bullied, and asserting that the presence of one man in Congress who would fight for "the cause of freedom," would advance the interests of abolitionism more than fifty talking men. It would seem that Mr. Wilson is acting on this hint, and has deliberately determined to put himself forward as the fighting black Republican. Nothing can be more ludicrous than this exhibition of himself; a sheep affecting the character of a bull-dog would be nothing to it. If the South has exerted a large influence in Congress it is due principally to the fact that it has been represented by men of more experience in legislative affairs than the North; so long as the North continues to change its representatives every two years, it will seldom have men here of legislative skill and experience.

The nomination of Fillmore and Donelson by the Know Nothings, is so completely a farce that it is hardly worth while to bestow a thought upon it. It may be proper to say, however, that there is no doubt of Mr. Fillmore's membership of the dark Order. Lodge No. 177, of New York, has officially announced the fact of his being a 3d degree member. Gen. Scroggs declares that he officiated at his initiation, and the Organ of this City claims him as a brother of full standing in the Know Nothing communion. So there can be no doubt about it.—Mr. Fillmore, in the meantime, is sojourning at Rome, where he is being lionized by the Pope, and who knows but that he may be duly converted?

It is rumored that a circular is being signed by the Republican members of Congress, taking distinct ground against Mr. Fillmore's nomination, and calling a National Convention for some day in July to nominate a candidate for the Presidency. Col. Fremont is now said to be the choice of the Republicans for the Presidential chair, with Banks for the Vice Presidency. The Know Nothings of several of the Northern States have already repudiated Mr. Fillmore, and will doubtless take part in this opposition movement. The old-line Whigs of the Maryland Legislature have issued a call for a State Convention, to take action with reference to the Presidency. In the mean time, the Democracy is not idle, but is busily preparing for the coming contest. The most prominent candidates before the Cincinnati Convention will be Messrs. Pierce, Buchanan and Douglas. Either can be elected if nominated, although certainly the South is bound by the ties of gratitude to the first named, and should earnestly seek to secure his nomination.

MECKLENBURG.

PHILADELPHIA, March 6, 1856.

The number of packages which encumber the side walks of Market and the adjacent streets, give evidence of the commencement of the Spring trade.—The merchants who have purchased at this early season, must have but a limited stock to select from, as the ice-closed harbor prevented the spring importations from being received direct. New York has the advantage of Philadelphia this year, and deserves it for the energy displayed in keeping her river free from ice. Our harbor is partially open, several ships have arrived at the wharves, and in a few days it is expected that the river front will once more exhibit its usual bustle and activity.

The death of four men, by the falling of a large ware-house, filled with flour and grain, has caused a slight excitement for the last few days. The Coroner is busy enquiring into the circumstances of the case, and has elicited evidence that the accident arose from culpable negligence in building the foundation, but, as in every other case of the kind, the matter will rest there. The sufferers were neither merchants or bankers, and as their deaths did not interfere with the course of trade or the price of stocks, the matter will be allowed to drop. They were only poor white laborers, and there are plenty more of the "same sort left."

Mrs. Antoinette Brown Blackwell, of woman's rights notoriety, delivered an anti-slavery lecture in Sansom St. Hall, on the evening of Saturday, March 1st. It abounded with the usual abuse and slanders (which pass current here instead of arguments,) against Southern men and institutions. She sneered at "men who call themselves men," getting up parades and marching with music in commemoration of Washington's birth day. But her chief topic was the late slave case at Cincinnati. She eulogized as a martyr, the wretch, Margaret, who cut her own childrens' throats, and asserted she ought, and would, in after ages be placed side by side with Virginius, the Roman father, who slew his daughter to preserve her honor, and said if she were born a slave, she would feel it a duty she owed to "God and man," to plant a dagger in the heart of that master, who dared to claim her as his property.—These sentiments were received with approbation; and the thrice-cursed maxim of "doing evil that good may come," received the sanction of an audience who pride themselves on the peculiar purity of their Christianity! Is it a wonder that infidelity and delism abounds throughout the country? when these maxims are proclaimed, not by a priestess of the ancient Molock, but by a woman, styled Reverend, and who, as such, has charge of a Christian congregation. What an admirable illustration of St. Paul's instructions to Timothy: "But suffer not a woman to teach, nor to use authority over the man, but to be in silence."

As was generally expected, Mr. Buchanan has received the unanimous nomination of the Harrisburg Convention, as their favorite candidate for the next term of the Presidency. The selection does both parties honor; for none can deny that Mr. Buchanan is worthy of the highest office in the Republic; but whatever may be their private wishes, the Democracy of Pennsylvania, always true to the Republican maxim of "principles, not men," will be found cheerfully supporting the nominee of the Cincinnati national Convention.

The origin of the name "Know Nothing" has occasionally caused some discussion. By turning to the gospel of St. John, 11th chapter and 49th and 50th verses, the anxous inquirer will find that the epithet was applied by Caiphas, the High Priest, to his brother Pharisees, when conspiring against the promulgation of the new gospel dispensation. What a striking resemblance between the "Know Nothings" of Jerusalem and their modern namesakes! The same fell spirit of religious intolerance—the same base truckling of the holiest principles to political expediency, has descended to their successors of the nineteenth century. There is but one character wanting to complete the historical similitude. Will the freemen of America leave it in the power of Millard Fillmore to betray the Republic into the hands of the modern conspirators against the liberty of conscience? The antecedents of our country proclaim they never will.

MESSRS. EDITORS: Allow us, through the medium of your paper, to congratulate our Mayor upon his being struck with a good idea, and also upon his happy escape from damages thereby. We see he gives notice that he will attend at his office, to take the City Tax list, on the first of April next. Considering the unobjectionable purposes to which our taxes are applied, and the judicious manner in which they are expended, no more suitable day could have been designated. We trust that our tax payers will duly appreciate the appropriateness of the occasion, and by a prompt attendance testify their approbation, thereby reflecting honor not only upon our City government in general, and upon our Mayor in particular, but also celebrating the time-honored first of April, dedicated to Foundry and Machine Shop for Sale.

THE CLARENDON IRON WORKS, LOCATED IN the town of Wilmington, North Carolina, now in successful operation, are offered for sale on accommodating terms; or an interest will be sold to a man of experience in the business, who has capacity to superintend the same. The property consists of a capacious and well-arranged all well supplied with tools, and capable of doing work of any kind that can be done at first class shops. The building will accommodate 500 hands, and the present tools are sufficient for 300 men. The land and water front is of sufficient extent to admit of any enlargement or addition that may be desired.

MACHINE SHOP, PATTERN ROOM, BOILER SHOP, BLACKSMITH SHOP, IRON AND BRASS FOUNDRY, DRAFTING ROOMS AND OFFICES,

The present demand for work is sufficient to keep the establishment employed with a force of 200 hands, and will increase. The prices obtained for work are such as to be profitable to the proprietor, and compare favorably with prices at other points to the purchaser.

In addition to the many advantages possessed by this location for the business, the opening of the Cape Fear and Deep River works, and the building of the Wilmington, Charlotte & Rutherford Railroad, will create additional demands for work, and furnish a supply of fine quality Coal and Iron.

If the whole, or an interest is not sold before the 16th day of April next, the property will be offered at public sale on that day, on the premises.

As the Establishment will continue in operation, orders for new work or repairs, will be attended to as heretofore.

Any information that may be desired, will be promptly furnished by application to the subscriber at Wilmington, N. C. A. H. VANBOKKELEN, Pres. C. I. W. Co.

"THE WESTERN SENTINEL,"

A DEMOCRATIC AND FAMILY JOURNAL.

SOLICITED BY MANY CITIZENS OF FORSYTH and surrounding Counties, the undersigned propose to publish, in the town of Winston, North Carolina, a Weekly Newspaper under the above title.

The increasing public interests of our section, and o Western Carolina generally; the enlarged appreciation o the reading public; and the demand for a local journal at the seat of our County government, seem to favor the establishment at Winston of a journal of the character proposed.

The "SENTINEL" will be devoted to Morality, Pure Literature, Republican Principles, General Intelligence, and all the interests of the people. It will be the aim of the publisher to render it a repository of pleasing and profitable reading, a faithful record of events, and an agreeable companion to the Home Circle.

In matters of public policy, both National and State, it will yield an unwavering support to Democratic measures, and a zealous advocacy of the Democratic cause; sustaining to the height of its ability the principles of the Baltimore Democratic platform of 1852, as agreed upon by the Party, and sanctioned by a large majority of the American People.

Against the recently organized "Know Nothing," or "Native American" movement, the Sentinel will take decided and unequivocal ground; regarding the creation of a religious test as qualification for public office, at variance with the letter and spirit of the Constitution, opposed to every principle of Republicanism, and worthy only the ignorance and intolerance of a darker age. Acting from a firm conviction that honesty, capability, and fidelity to the Constitution, (aside from political principle,) are sufficient requisites in candidates for office under a Republican form of government, we shall oppose any organization, whether secret or open, that seeks to create a barrier between the native and adopted citizen, or to deprive either of the rights and privileges enjoyed under the Constitution and Laws, as they stand. In short, our position and sentiment upon this subject will be: PRINCIPLES—not birth-place; MEASURES—not men.

The paper will be devotedly attached to the Union of the States, while maintaining a jealous guardianship of their individual rights: advocating as the only guarantee of the perpetuity of the Union, a strict and faithful adherence, under all circumstances, to the Federal Constitution.

With the increased mail facilities afforded by the completion of the North Carolina Railroad, and the advantages of daily arrival, the Sentinel will contain the latest and most reliable intelligence.

Especial care and attention will be bestowed upon the Editorial Department; and with the assistance of intelligent correspondents, it is hoped that the original portion of the publication may form a pleasing and attractive feature.

While the tone of the "Sentinel" upon all subjects, will be fearless and independen , its columns will be entirely free from the low slang and billingsgate rhetoric so conspicuous in some of the political journals of the day.

The first number will be issued in the month of April next.

The "Sentinel" will be printed weekly, from new type, on a large sheet, at the price of Two Dollars per year, in advance; two dollars and a half after six months, or three dollars after the close of the subscription year. To any one procuring ten subscribers, and paying the cash in advance, the paper will be furnished one year, gratis.

F. E. BONER.

December 18, 1855. 9—

Prospectus of the "Southern Sentinel,"

A Democratic and Miscellaneous Journal, to be Published Weekly, at Wilson, N. C.

THE EXISTING CONDITION OF POLITICAL PARTIES, and of partizan strife, natually suggests the establishing of such a journal as the "SOUTHERN SENTINEL" purposes to become. The present, indeed, is a crisis in our political history, never witnessed before. The Constitution has been invaded; the laws trampled and spat upon; religious liberty assailed; ballot boxes broken and burnt; the landmarks of our political ancestry partially effaced; the wisdom derived from a time-honored experience unseated; strange and questionable men have been pushed into high positions; and fanaticism, unchained from its axe and its faggot piles in the North, is heard to howl among us in the South. These evils, so far as its humble abilities shall serve, will endeavor to arrest. It will endeavor to inculcate reverence for the laws as they exist, and for the Constitution, as it has been interpreted by the wise men of the past and by the Fathers of the Democratic faith. It will defend not only political, but RELIGIOUS liberty, and will do battle against every political heresy that may appear, whether hatched in caves or culverts, or open convention.

THE SOUTHERN SENTINEL

The SENTINEL will also, to relieve the monotony of politics, devote space to literary topics, original and selected, as well as to miscellaneous subjects, which shall include Agricultural and the latest Commercial intelligence. In brief, no efforts nor expenses will be spared to make the Sentinel one of the most useful and efficient journals in the South.

The first number of the Sentinel will be issued about the first of the next month, and sent to subscribers at the rate of $2 per annum: $2 50 at the end of six months, and $3 at the end of the year. Discount made in behalf of clubs, who shall take five, ten or more copies.

NOTICE.—A NEGRO MAN WHO CALLS HIMSELF WM. CURTIS, was committed to the jail of this city in December last, for want of a copy of his Registry. He says that he is free, that he was raised, as he believes, in the county of Orange or Granville, in the State of North Carolina, by an old gentleman named Thomas Jordan, (a Scotchman,) whom, he says, gave him his free papers. He left there about twenty years ago for the State of Georgia with Mr. John Tuttle, a Railroad Contractor, and has not resided in N. C. since that time. He is about 41 or 42 years of age, black complexion, five feet 7¼ inches in height, tolerably likely, has small whiskers, and is ruptured. He gives such a lame account of himself that the Hustings Court of this city authorized me to advertise him, thinking it probable that he may be a runaway slave. Any person who may see this notice, and knows any thing about the above named man, will please give me the information.

Try the Piano First!

A PROPOSITION IS NOW MADE BY E. P. NASH to select PIANOS for customers, and allow them to test their qualities before paying for them. Better evidence cannot be given of the estimation in which we hold our Pianos.

We keep about 40 PIANOS of various patterns on hand to select from, which are bought exclusively for cash, from four of the largest manufacturers in New York, which were conceded at the Paris Worlds' Fair, to be the best. We have sold about fifteen hundred of them, which have given full satisfaction.

Successor to E. L. Harding.

THE UNDERSIGNED, WHO HAS BEEN FOR MANY years Clerk for E. L. Harding, was, on the 1st day of January 1856, appointed Agent for the "Raleigh Branch," by the same manufacturers with whom Mr. H. was connected while in business in this city. The same style and class of Clothing that have given this house the reputation it now enjoys, will be kept, and the prices will be as uniform, and we hope as satisfactory in every particular.

WM. H. WILLIAMS.

To our Former Patrons.

BEFORE LEAVING THIS CITY FOR OUR NEW home, we take the pleasure of recommending Mr. William H. Williams to your favorable consideration. Mr. W. will have the same facilities for supplying your wants and demands, as have been enjoyed by the undersigned for the last eight years, and will no doubt do so as satisfactorily.

Mr. Williams is fully authorized to settle up our books and accounts. We now, for the last time, say to all indebted us, that our business must be settled up. Reasonable time will be allowed delinquents before asking them to settle with our attorneys.

BAYARD TAYLOR'S NEW BOOK.—A Visit to India, China, Loo-Choo and Japan, in the year 1853, by Bayard Taylor, with elegant Steel Engravings. 12mo cloth. Price $1 50.

This volume is a record of the author's own experience during a year's travel in the above named countries, and is intended to convey an accurate idea of their present physical and social aspect. The results of the writer's observations are given in the same delightfully natural style which characterizes his previous works.

"We welcome with pleasure this long promised work. The last of three volumes comprising the travels in Central Africa, Egypt and India, of one of the most indefatigable travelers of the day. We know of no books of the kind that keep the reader's attention so much alive."—Sunday Dispatch.

"Mr. Taylor has earned a reputation as a traveller, never equaled by any American, and surpassed by but few persons now living. We venture the assertion, that this new book will be generally confessed to be his greatest and best work."—Eastern Argus.

EXTRACT FROM PREFACE.

"A Basket of Chips" is a somewhat unpromising repast to ask any one to participate in, to be sure, and the unsavoriness of the name will, no doubt, be eagerly laid hold of by some of the critics. Perhaps it might be as well, in explanation of the title, to say that the random sketches contained in this volume are but the sawdust and shavings accumulated during intervals of more laborious carpentry.

THE GREAT SOUTHERN WEEKLY!

THE SPECTATOR:
WASHINGTON CITY, D. C.

A FAMILY JOURNAL OF LITERATURE AND NEWS FOR SOUTHERN READERS.

THE SOUTH HAS TOO LONG BEEN DEPENDENT upon the northern cities for its periodical literature. The weekly newspapers of Boston, New York, and Philadelphia, have swept like a flood over that part of the nation south of Mason and Dixon's Line, many of them carrying with them some of the prejudices of abolitionism; and inculcating, to a greater or less extent, doctrines injurious to southern institutions. This dependence of the mass of southern readers should be thrown off—and it is believed would have been long ago, if there had been facilities in the South for the publication of first class literary papers.

THE SPECTATOR,

Is published by a gentleman who has long been connected with some of the southern dailies, and has been undertaken to supply this want—that of a high-toned weekly paper

Of Southern interest and character.

The general plan of the paper is as follows: It has eight pages; three of which are filled with the best articles on Literature, Science, and the Arts; one to the editor's comments upon passing themes; one to general news, foreign and domestic; one to the interests of the
